HIGH SCHOOL

BISHOP LEECH breaks ground for new York Catholic High School.

FATHER BIERSTER, principal, turns the sod for Y.C.H.S.

DONATOR OF the Brady Science Hall, Edw. J. Brady furthers the excavation.

REPRESENTING the student body, Herbert J. Martin puts his foot to the plow.

FOREWORD

Preparation, that process forever pertinent to thoughtful living, is the theme of the 1958 Rosa Mystica story.

York Catholic prepares its students to use the present for their future destiny. They are impregnated with the simple satiating truth that their sole mission on earth is to love God personally and in His creation, and by this to receive eternal life.

It prepares them to face the materiastic world with a true sense of values. Although the face of the earth may change, matter be cast into a thousand molds at the command of science, space be conquered by man-made moons, they know the mind, the heart, and the emotions of man are ageless. Man's aim is happiness, and real happiness is his union with his Maker.

To prepare them for happiness here and hereafter, the administration, faculty, parents, and friends provide the means through well planned curricula and extra-curricula activities.

Throughout the pages of this book, whether they show sports, dances, academic activities, or strictly religious functions, you will find York Catholics students performing every action in the belief that if performed according to God's will, it is a step in the great work of their ascent toward Christ.

May they always remember they are Christ's own, and that He expects them to go forth as leader of men and women, leaders who will light the world with the Torch of Christian knowledge and the inspiration of Christlike lives.

Faculty, Well Prepared, to Prepare

Possessed of more than sufficient preparation for their career, by means of their academic and scientific training, faculty members of York Catholic deepen their preparation by consecration of life and talent to the education of youth. They are teachers, not merely of abstract subjects, but friends, counsellors, guides of the students, whom they assist in difficulty, aid in proper use of leisure, and encourage to become useful citizens.

Father Bierster, Mr. John Sinkovitz, and eighteen Sisters make up the full time list. Sisters of St. Francis number five; Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, six; Sisters of St. Joseph, three; Daughters of Mercy and Sisters of Charity, two each. All are degreed in their respective fields.

The school is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the Catholic Educational Association of Pennsylvania, and holds membership in more than twenty-five education groups in Music, Art, Speech, Languages, Business, and other subjects.

Part-time instructors in Music are: Mr. Roman Shuman, Orchestra; Mr. Ralph Woolley, Glee Club; Mr. Philip Stinger, Drums; Mr. John Hutton, Band; Mr. L. Kenneth Loucks, Jr., Clarinet.

In Physical Education are: Mr. John Chiappy, Football; Mr. James Reynolds, Basketball.

Dr. Kenneth O'Toole is school doctor; Mrs. Richard Mummert, nurse.

PREPARATION is a conditioning or a process of adaptation which molds the object of its action into a state of fitness for a specified task. Education, heralded as the science of preparation, in its laboratory, the school, purposes to develop the student's intellectual faculties for the pending work of life. Catholic education, in addition, seeks to train moral instincts, and shape Christlike characters, by stressing discipline, self-command, respect for authority, clear thinking—all through recognition of God as Creator, Redeemer, and Friend.

Ninety-six students are leaving York Catholic with such an education; forty-five are boys, fifty-one, girls. Forty-four took academic or scientific courses, nineteen, commercial, and eleven, general.

Besides eight holding honors for four years, several have received other distinctions. Herb Martin was victor in Voice of Democracy and other forensic activities; Rosalie Dunn, Paul Nissley were finalists in National Merit Scholarship; Tom Gabriele and Rosalie Dunn were successful in the National Science Talent Examination. Harold Adams won the musical scholarship to Duquesne, and Paul Borsa was named to the All-Star Football Team.

Twenty-nine seniors represent St. Patrick parish, St. Joseph, twenty-three, Immaculate Conception, eighteen, St. Rose, seventeen, St. Joseph, Dallastown, five, and St. John, New Freedom, four.

Worthy Seniors

Herbert John Martin "Herb"

Pianist, organist, tuba artist all rolled in one, that's Frank; all recognize his great energy, geniality, and forthrightness.

Mara Gretchen Fenninger "Gretch"
605 Country Club Road • St. Patrick, York
Glee Club 3,4; Intramural Basketball 1; Dramatics 1,4; Chemistry Club 4; Sodality 3,4.

A feminine Cecil B. DeMille; her cooperation, her self-effacing character make her a real treasure.

Cecilia Marie Freeland "Cily"
613 S. Court Street • St. Patrick, York
Orchestra 1,2,3,4; Dramatics 1; Latin Club 2; Junior Classical League 3; Biology Club 2; Sodality 2,3,4; Orchestra School Award 2.

What Cily does, she does well; her directness, simplicity and sincerity are almost unique.

Sandra Susan Gallagher "Sandy"
329 E. Locust Street • Immaculate Conception, York
Glee Club 2,3,4; Cheerleader 1,2; Intramural Basketball 1; Rosary Altar Society 3; Latin Club 1,2; Fashion Show 1.
Rather cool in manner is this expert driver of a cool "Olds"; Sandy is a true friend of all who know her.

David Francis Garrety "Chipper"
R. D. #8 • St. Rose of Lima, York
Intramural Basketball 4; Perfect Attendance 1,3; Fire Prevention Poster Contest 1; Biology Club 2.
A definitely taciturn man; Chipper always chips in where assistance is needed.

Donald Eugene Gladfelter "Don"
1424 Monroe Street • St. Rose of Lima, York
Band 1,2; Orchestra 1,2; Intramural Basketball 1,2, 3,4; Perfect Attendance 3; Server for Holy Mass 3,4; Latin Club 2; Biology Club 2.
Lodestone of fun-makers; yet Don is capable of clear, direct thinking.

William Joseph Gurreri "Little Bill"
37 E. Cottage Place • St. Patrick, York
Glee Club 1,2,4; A Cappella Choir 3; Intramural Basketball 1,3,4; Dramatics 1,4; Biology Club 2; Talent Show 1; Poster Award 1.
Short, dark and handsome; "Little Bill" loves dismissals, lunch periods, and tolerates classes.

William Vincent Gurreri "Bill"
150 S. Rockburn Street • St. Joseph, York
Intramural Basketball 1,2,3,4; Latin Club 1,2; Biology Club 2; Talent Show 1; Poetry Contest 2.

Bill is noted for his witty conversation; but his popularity really stems from his compatibility.

James Edward Haberstroh "Habby"
644 E. Boundary Avenue • Immaculate Conception, York
Glee Club 2,3,4; Football 1; Intramural Basketball 4; Perfect Attendance 1,2; Dramatics 4; Biology Club 2; Talent Show 1; Poster Contest 1,2.

Dancing is the avocation of this curly-haired senior; he works with the hope of being interrupted.

Frances Julia Hammschmidt "Fran"

Beyond the Call

ROSALIE DUNN, representing both the Student Council and the Senior class, is among those chosen to turn the first shovels of earth at the site of the new York Catholic High School.

AS NEW MEMBERS of York Catholic's faculty, Sisters Mary Patrick, M. de Paul, Marita Cecilia, and Patricia Mary look pleased as seniors Herb Martin and Tom Gabriele introduce them to the Rosa Mystica and The Spectator.

of Classes

DISPLAYING THE ENTHUSIASM with which this year's election of student officers was conducted, these candidates for the presidency pose with their campaign managers: Michael Kane with Albert Boll, Herbert Martin with Paul Nissley, and Thomas Gabriele with Harold Adams.

THE ANNUAL TALENT SHOW at Y. C. produced a variety of fine talent by such participants as these winners: Michael Andrews, drum soloist; pantomimists, Carmela Zambito, Anne Whalen, Catherine Mingora, and Justina Deller; and vocal quartet, Michael Andrews, Albert Boll, Michael Kane, and Harold Adams.

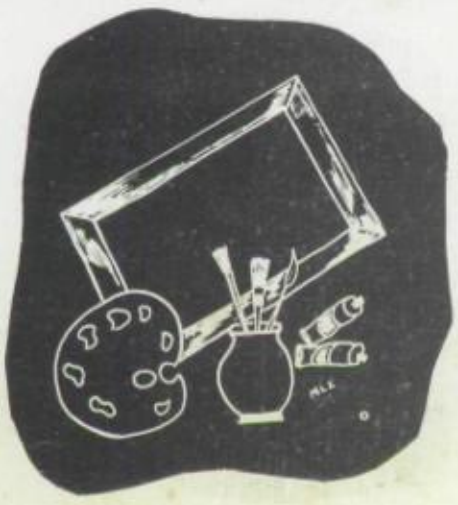
HISTORY

PREPARATION FOR LIFE is, as has been said above, the purpose of schools. Students attend school to get ready to take their places in society as good citizens, good neighbors, and good home-makers. To attain this end requires more than the basic attainments.

Y. C. educators and educated heed the call for deeper scientific training to yield increasing knowledge and mastery of the physical universe, but they maintain that to lengthen the fingers through technology and leave the heart untouched will serve only to shackle man's destiny to irrational impulses. Their goal is the mastery of nature, mastery of the human mind, and mastery of self. Therefore, they recognize the parallel need for training in the liberal arts and religion to produce graduates who will be whole men.

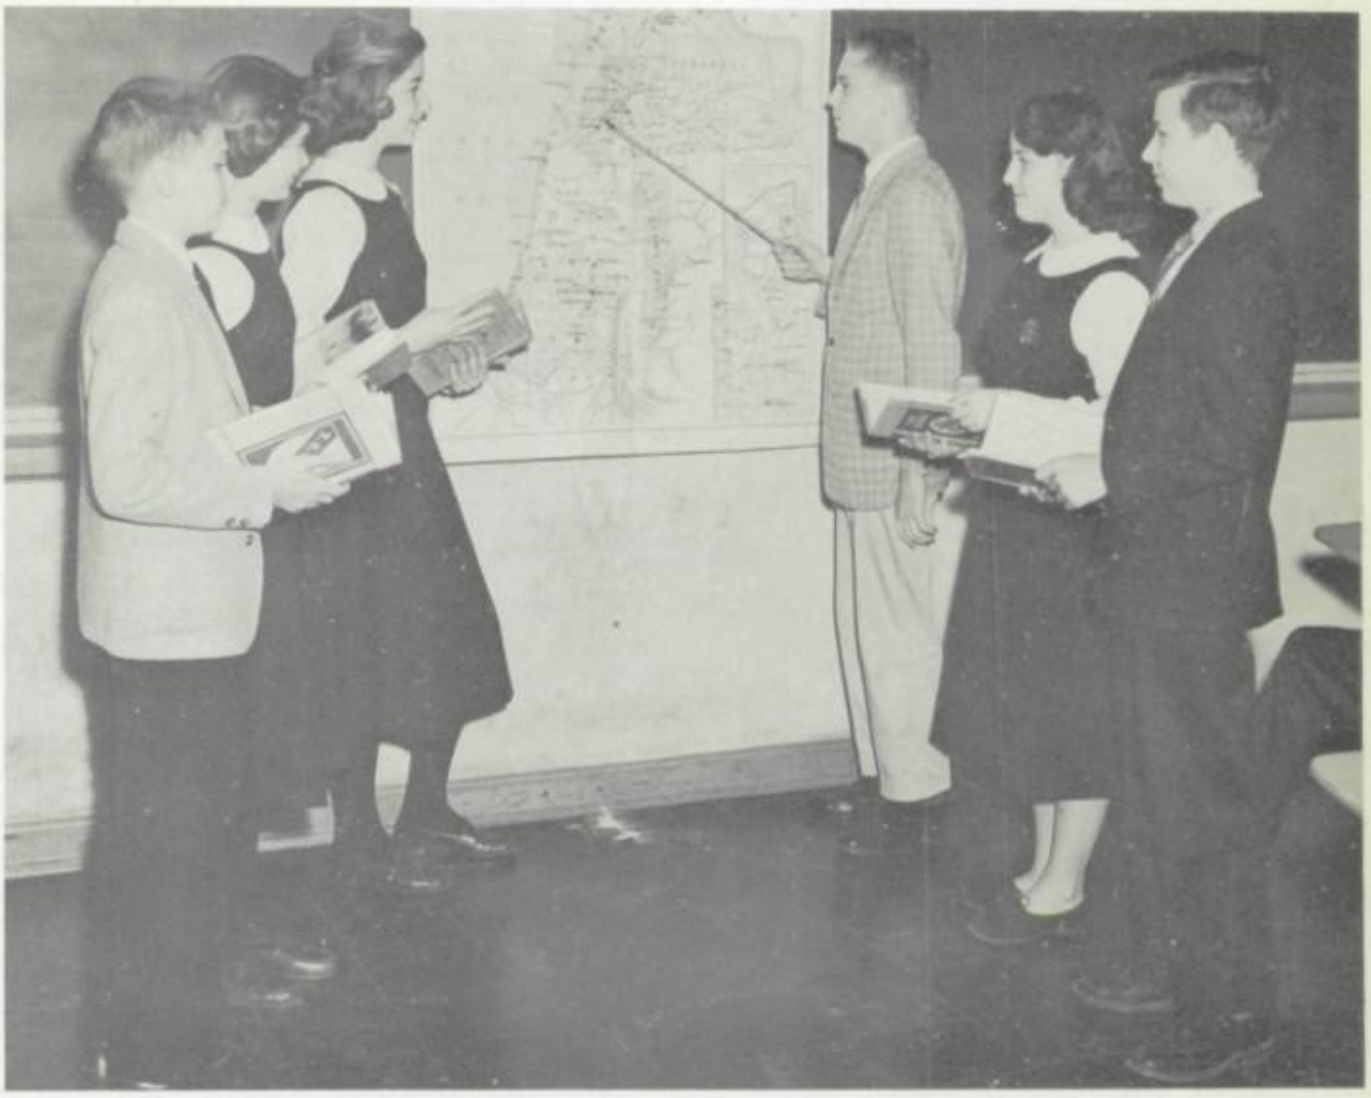
The curriculum testifies to this objective. Religion, art, music, literature, Latin, French, social studies, and mathematics, join the sciences and the commercial branches.



Cultural Preparation

ART II STUDENTS create a holiday wrap. The designed packages of angels, reindeer, snowmen, and effective ribbon decoration display the students' delight in this handicraft. Mabel Sanders, Linda Looks, Raymond Noll, Virginia Alfano, Madeline Gangloff, John Sipe, Mary Rudolph, Kathryn Reinoehl, Thomas Wagman, Mary Edna Emenheiser, Judith Darinsig.

FRESHMEN take great pride in woodcraft work. Plaques are cut by coping saw and stands are glued on for the luminous Maddonas. Margaret Lowe, Donald Sponsler, Clair Peters, Donald Eveler, Vincent Orlando, Patricia Meninger, Christine Flinchbaugh, Mary Kathryn Clark, Elizabeth Mengel, Robert Haas.

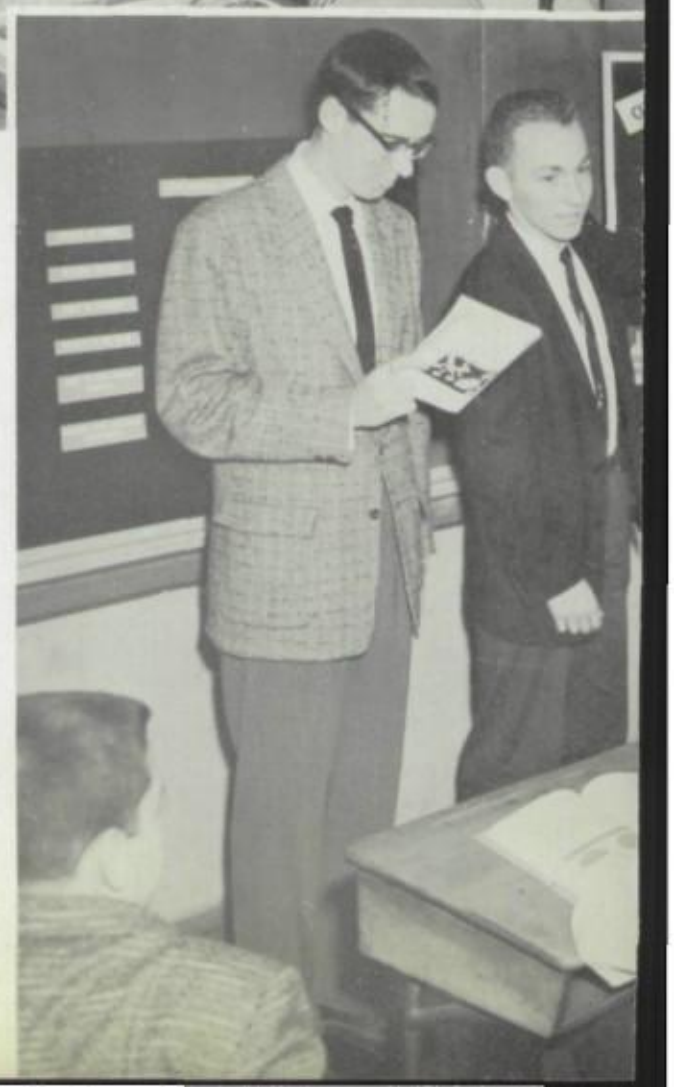


DURING RELIGION I CLASS, freshman Robert Reed discusses with Frank Weaver, Mary Shive, Mary Shorb, Joyce McLaughlin and George Melbert, the Public Life of Christ and the virtues He practiced so eminently for our imitation.

WITH THE AID of the Seven Channels of Grace, especially the Holy Eucharist, Jane Kerchner explains that we are able to arrive at our Eternal Destiny. Listening to Jane are Rosemarie Unger, Thomas Williams, Terrence McClain, Susan Hagarman, Elizabeth McLaughlin.

CHRISTMAS TIME in America affords World History students the pleasure of comparing the manner of celebrating the birth of Christ with the areas of early civilization. Nicholas Listorti locates the areas concerned as Michael Bievenour, Mary Ann Rothert, Barbara Akers, Constance Mingora, and Charles Doweary, explain in turn the way these people celebrate this holy feast today.

THE "belles" OF York Catholic High School give an extra glow to the Christmas Tree in Sister Rose Immaculee's homeroom. The Junior American History students, Michael Gangloff, Mary Buckley, Kathleen Callahan and Thomas Eckenrode hope their pictures will decorate next year's tree, and at present enjoy the interruption of regular routine.



SISTER ROSE IMMACULEE, Robert Stewart and Herbert Abenshon proudly display the HOBSO (HOW Our Business System Operates) Equipment, which is a gift from the York Chamber of Commerce to the Problems of Democracy Class.

THE WONDER OF small things. Students marvel at what they observe under the microscope. Catherine Mullen, James Geubtner, Joseph O'Brien, Joan Wagman, Judith Lanius and Constance Dauber made slides and are examining them. Sr. Anne Jerome is showing William Feeser how to mount a specimen.

ARCHIMEDES' PRINCIPLE is being demonstrated by Regina Grimek, John MacKinder, Janice Eckenrode, and James Hoffman, a freshman group directed by Sister Caritas, S.C.

CHECKING WORK of others offers great experience. Here, Joseph Foin, Michael Hoffman, Judith Orendorff, and William Farrell watch the progress of Margaret Tassia, Kathleen Callahan, and Rita Bahn.

SENIORS OF the French II class are vividly reminded of the Unity and Universality of the Church, as they learn new names for old friends —the priest and his Mass vestments. Sister Maria Leona helps with the pronunciation as vestments are displayed by Robert Meloni, Cecilia Freeland, William V. Gurreri (seated), Daniel Collins, Bonita Crone, and James Smith.

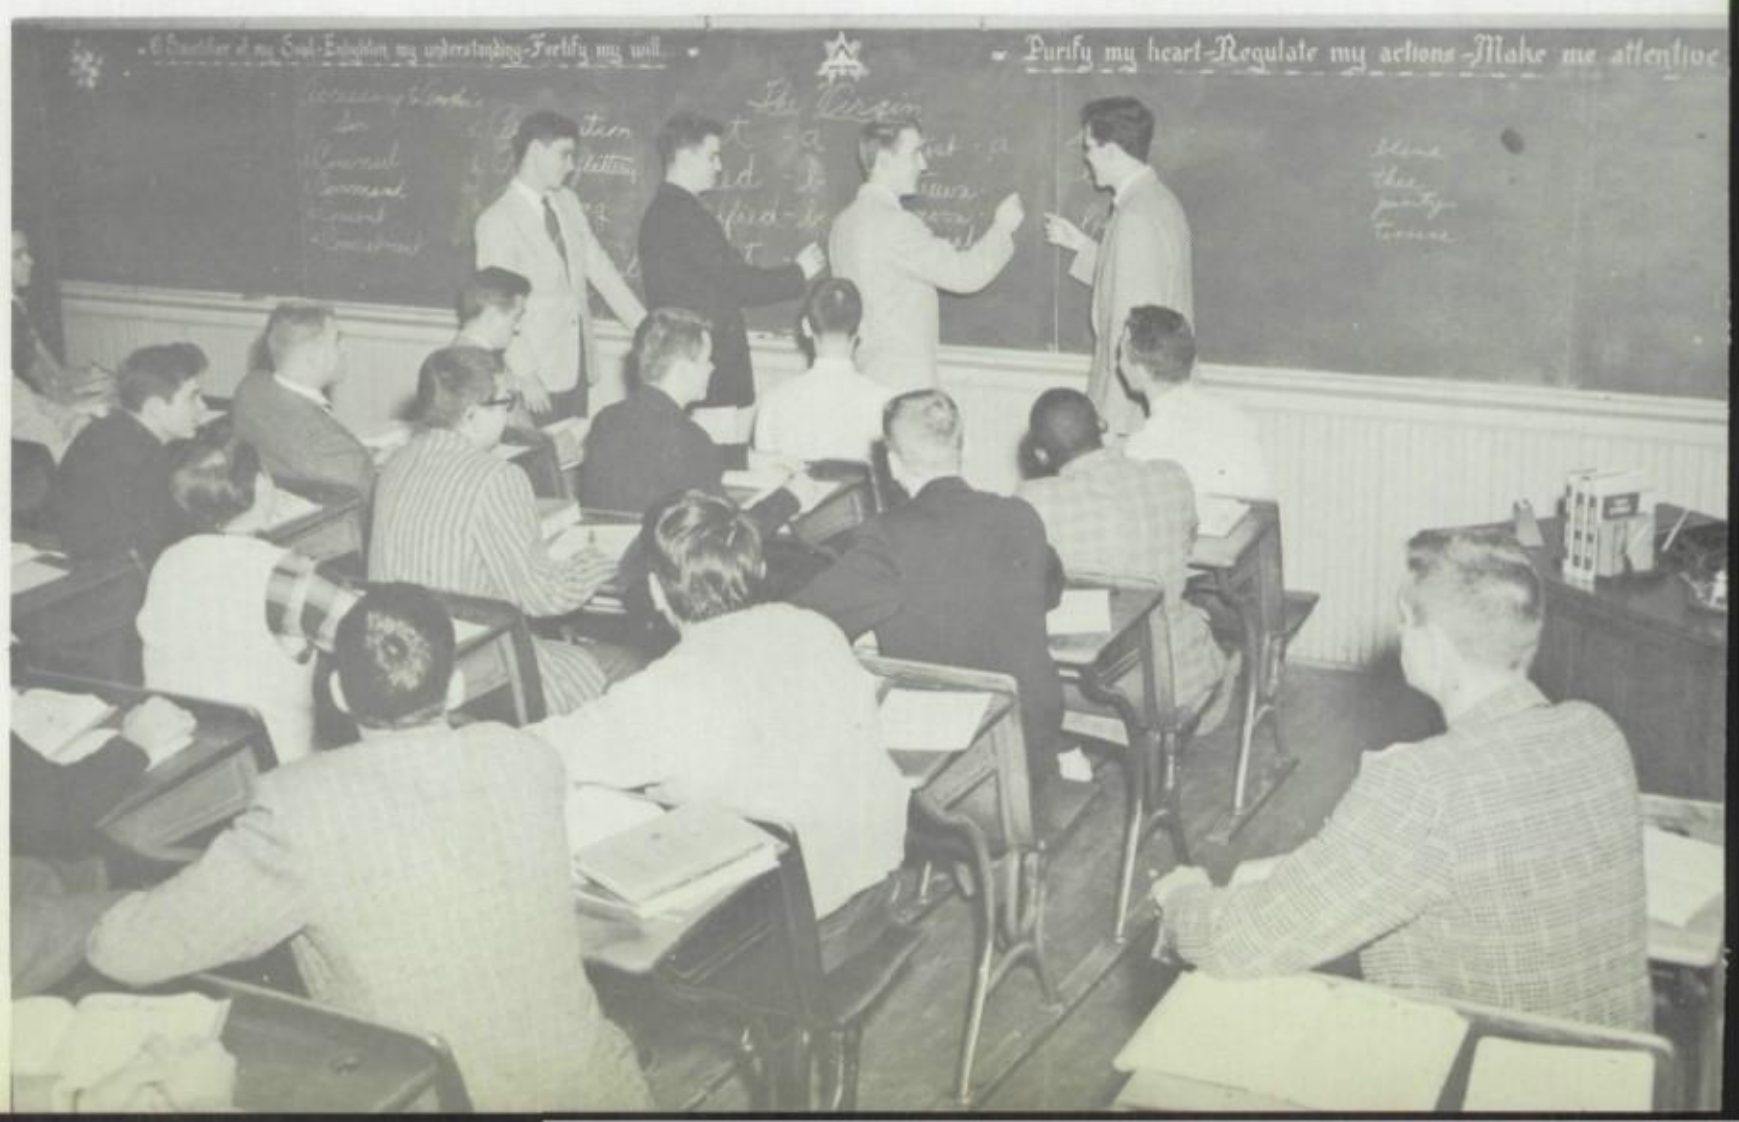
EVEN "CICERO" CAME up for checking at Y. C. Margaret Tassia quizzes Shirley Roth on vocabulary, grammar, derivatives, figures of speech, etc., as others await trial. Mary Guyer keeps score.

THOMAS GRAHAM, of Junior French I class, helps locate Lourdes, the center of special devotion and activity during this, the centenary year of Our Lady's apparitions. Sister Maria Leona seems interested in Diane Jennings' explanatory brochure, as Kathleen Shorb and Michael Bell concentrate on the map. Also identifiable in their seats are Henry Smyser and Patrick Clark.

ESSAY WRITING can be fun as these freshmen are discovering. Jeanne Buckingham, James Hoffman, Bonita Frey, Peter Mangan, John Watson and Elizabeth Mengel correct their work with Sister Christine's further inspection.

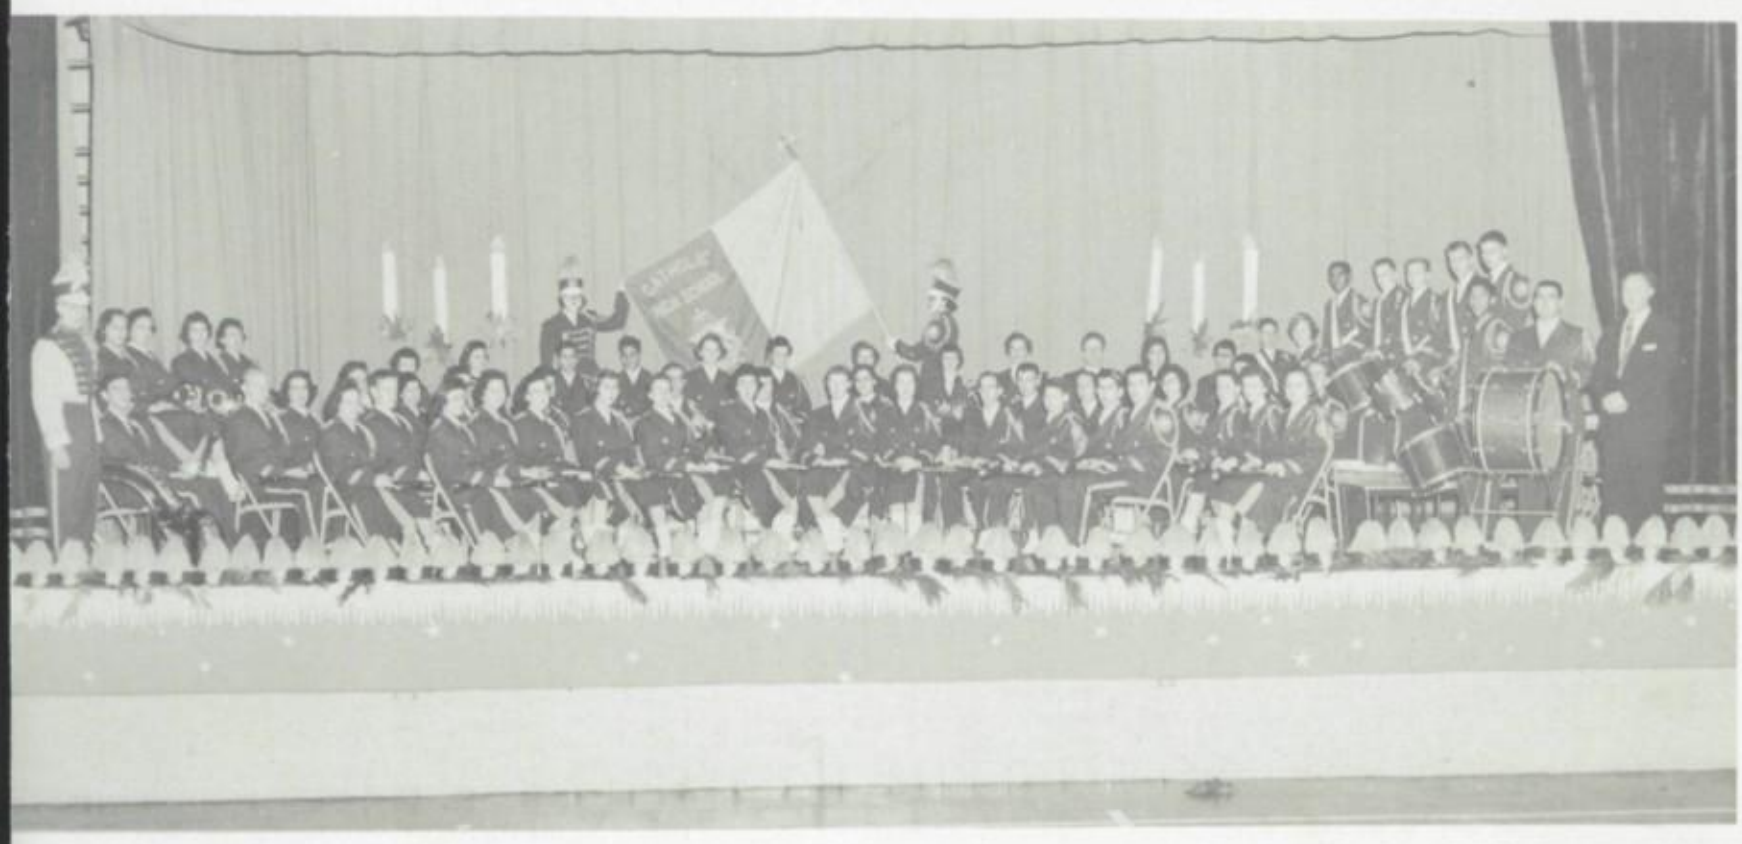
Mastery of the Mother Tongue

SENIOR BOYS eagerly watch as Jim Smith and John Wills guided by William Hooper and William V. Gurreri, determine the rhyme scheme of Wordsworth's sonnet, "The Virgin."



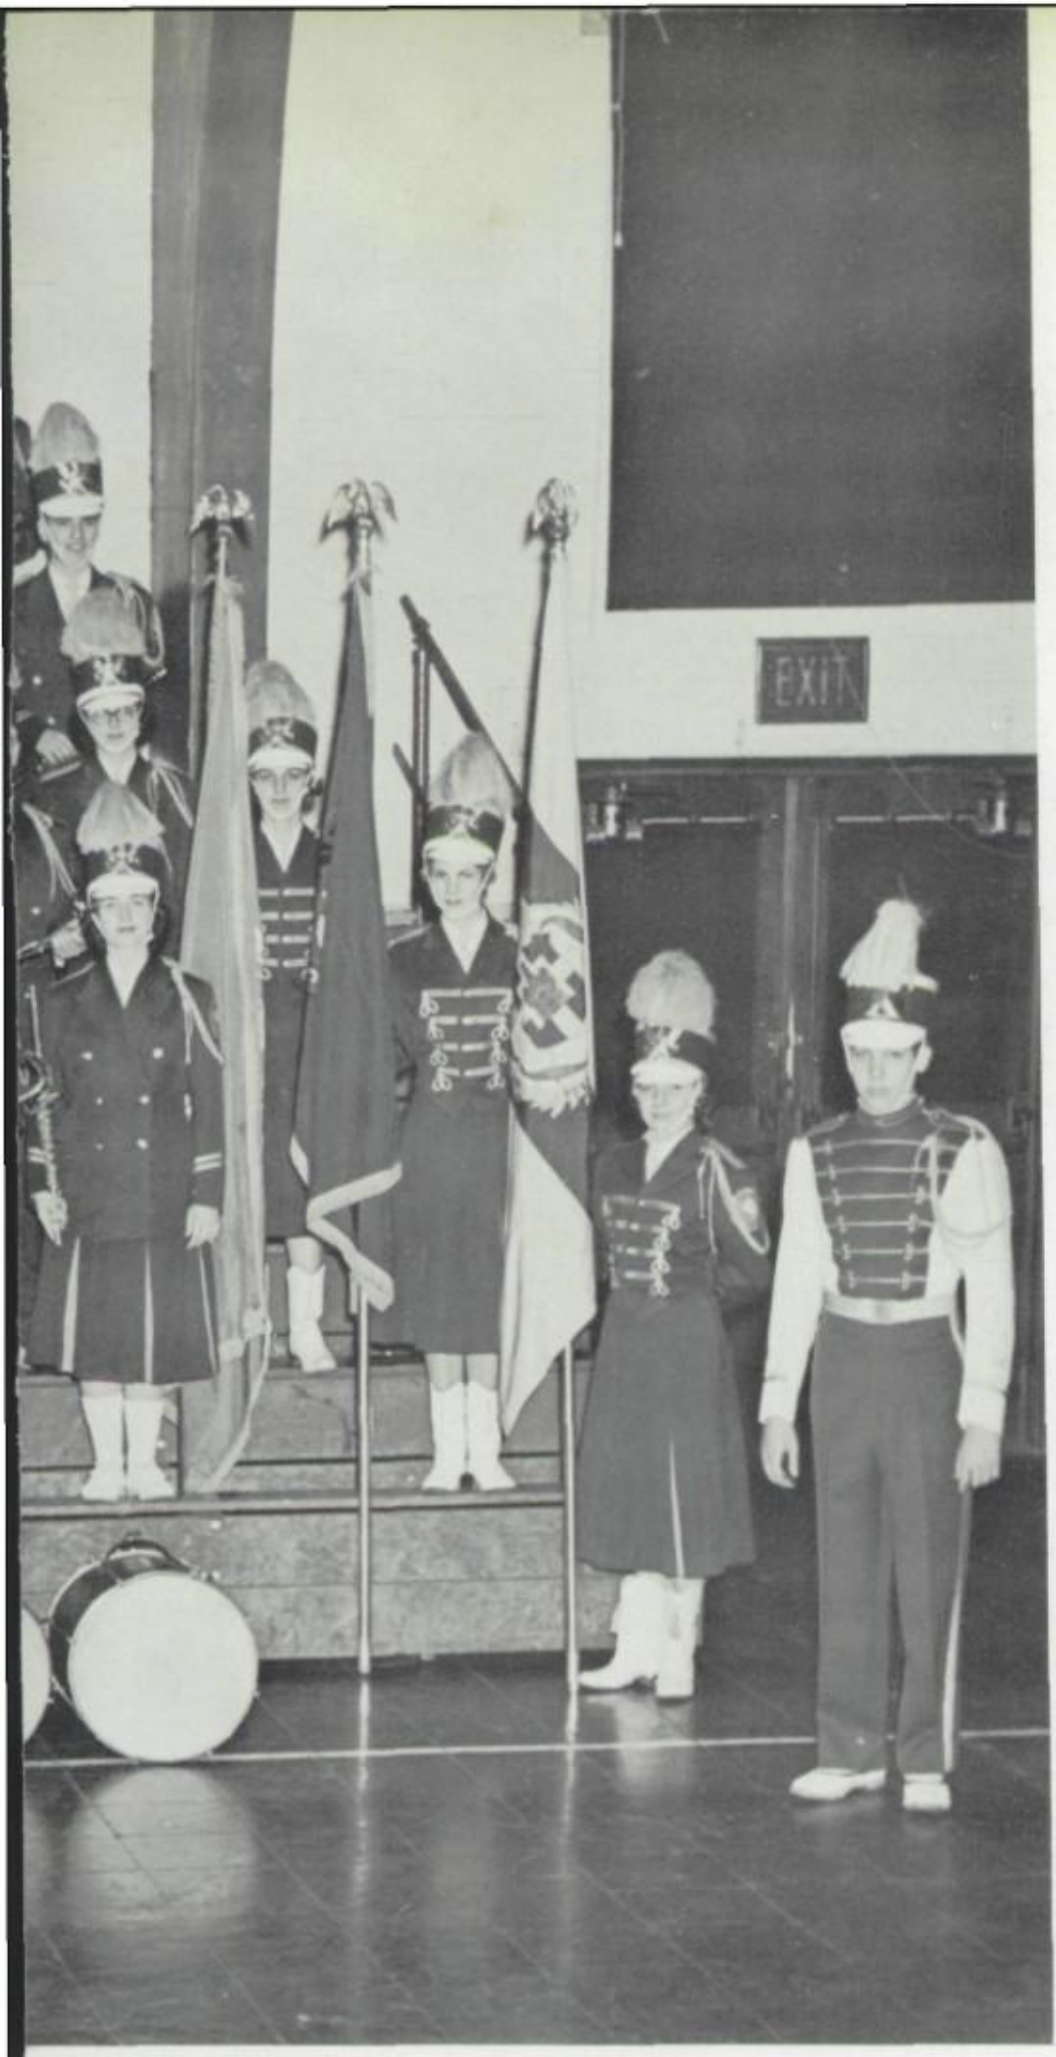
Occasional Classes

ALL RELIGION CLASSES prepare in same way for the weekly Mass on Fridays, at which all students may receive Holy Communion.



DAILY BAND PRACTICE under Mr. Hutton makes Y. C. Band available for all school occasions.

GENERAL ASSEMBLIES often call for popular songs; Sister Marita Cecilia sees that all classes get the know-how.



AWARE OF THE TRUTH that companionship and recreation play an important part in the complete development of youth, Y.C.H.S. endeavors to maintain an extensive program of activities which will enable its students to make proper use of their leisure time. By participating in the many clubs, such as Latin Club, Science Clubs, Art, Drama and Speech, education joins with practical knowledge in a spirit of freedom. By attending dances, skating parties, and all forms of sports, a spirit of cooperation and fellowship is encouraged among the students. Membership in musical organizations, publications, and participation in dramatics and oratorical contests, develops a sense of poise and accomplishment while they teach, through experience, that the thing to be gained by an active life is not just honor or power, but wisdom and truth.

These all aid in the fullest preparation of youth for the life that lies ahead, and the class of '58 is grateful to its school for giving such help.

Activities

Club Activities

All club meetings are held out of school time; there are no dues, officers are voted in by members. Many of the activities carried on are the suggestions offered by the magazines especially devoted to each club. Most flourishing are the art, science, commercial, Latin, and public speaking.

AFTER CAREFULLY following Sister Rose Immaculee's map of New York, the U. N. trip committee makes a final check before venturing into the bustling city.

Y. C.'s FINE mission spirit is attributed in some measure to these persuasive class representatives under the direction of Sister M. DePaul, moderator. They are Loretta Freed, Mildred Bell, Patricia Peffley, Patrick Clark, Lucien St. Onge, Michael Aulbach, Michael Hopkinson, Jacqueline Van Gorder, Barbara Beck, Sister Mary DePaul, Susan Paden, Philip Wecker, and Marcia Wagner. Seated: Thomas Dimelow and Regina Grimek.

SCIENCE STUDENTS pursue a variety of interests at club meetings that range from rockets, ham operating, high frequency generation to growing crystals. Top table: Robert Stewart, Thomas Gabriele, Michael Gangloff. Front: Rosalie Dunn, Patrick Clark, Sarah Snyder, Michael Kane, Lawrence Quinlivan, and William Hooper.

AMONG THE MANY techniques a busy secretary must master are those of the telephone. Jean Schmidt and Carmela Zambito appear to be doing this efficiently, for Sister Marcia Marie and the class looked pleased. Seen are Richard Pichler, Bonnie Brezler, Virginia Brady, and Annunciata Angelo.

Senior dramatists, under direction of Sister Joseph Leona, presented three one-act plays instead of the usual three-act comedy.

The "Haunted Theater" by John Randall is a mystery thriller with many good laughs among moments of chilling suspense. Sarah Jones, Pat Akers, Larry Quinlivan, and William Reinoehl supplied a worthy supporting cast for leads Pat Mumma and Herb Martin.

Verne Power's "High Window", primarily a play of mood and potential impact, demanded clever characterization which was ably supplied by Rosalie Dunn, Margaret O'Rourke, Anna Mead, Harold Adams, and William Hooper.

Tina Deller, Susan Conrad, Jane Wogan, James Smith, Paul Nissley, Lynn Shive, Robert Stewart, Thomas Gabriele, assist Mike Kane in "The Pampered Darling," a comedy written by Beatrice McNeil.

The change to three plays was highly praised.

SENIOR BOYS acted as stagehands. On floor: Michael Andrews, John Shuchart, Charles Staub, and Paul Borsa. On stairs: James Benkert, Thomas Arigo, James Haberstroh, Albert Boll, and William Gurreri.

The annual Christmas pageant given by the Music Department, followed the usual pattern of tableaux, A Cappella Choir, and Chorus, depicting the Birth of Christ. The Band was an added attraction this year.

Carols by student body, Organ Prelude, and "Adoramus Te" by Brass Ensemble and Organ completed the program.

FATHER BIERSTER, principal, administers oath of office to Herbert Martin, president.

With Herbert Martin at the wheel, the thirty members of the Student Council gave a year of unparallel service in promoting the interest of student participation for the good of the school. Its chief claim to praise lay in its dignified means of securing effective cooperation at all times under all circumstances.

Sister Maria Leona, I.H.M., has been moderator since its organization in 1948.

Y.C.H.S. is a member of the national, state, and local branches of the association.

AFTER HIS ADDRESS, Father blesses the pins to be worn by members.

NEWLY ELECTED MEMBERS promise . . . "to fulfill the duties of the office . . . to respect and uphold the traditions of Y. C. H. S. . . . to inspire a like respect among fellow students . . . to the best of our ability."

Student Council.

SPEAKING AT the Installation ceremony, Father Vincent Smith emphasizes the truth that obedience is the necessary quality for the governing and the governed.

PRESIDENT HERBERT MARTIN thanks his electors and promises to do all in his power to keep Y. C. a highly-rated school.

CLOTHED WITH POISE that comes from efficiency, our secretaries stand ready for the great task of the year. Left group are Barbara Akers, Bonita Frey, Kathleen Whalen, Loretta Freed, Jean Buckingham, Florence Freed, Karen McGinty. Right group are Regina Grimek, Nancy Miller, Patricia Mann, Mary Sue Strine, Josephine Alfano, Carmelo Zambito.

Rosa Mystica

FATHER BIERSTER congratulates staff members Tom Gabriele, Rosalie Dunn, and Paul Nissley for national recognition in other fields of endeavor.

The staff of the Rosa Mystica, the yearbook of Y. C., is completely composed of seniors and is divided into the business staff, literary staff, typists, and artists. All work, such as copy-writing, editing, etc., is done by the students in out-of-school hours, and 85 per cent of the photography is done by a student.

The Rosa Mystica has been the recipient of first place honors every year by the Catholic Press Association, National Scholastic Press Association, Columbia Scholastic Press Association, and the Pennsylvania School Press Association.

ARTISTS Mary Jane Wagaman, and Mary Lou Eckenrode offer final sketches to co-editor Anne Whalen; copy-reader Anna Mead stands guard over typists Carmela Zambito and Jean Schmidt.

PICTURES, COPY, and placement come up for consideration. Thought and more thought are given by Sarah Jones, Catherine Wagman, Rosemary Henissee, Jane Wogan, and Patricia Akers.

The Spectator

DEADLINE DATES keep these chiefs of The Spectator busy yet satisfied: Marion Buckingham (co-editor), Constance Saum, Michael Eden, Thomas Tassia, Ernest McDowell, Herbert Martin (co-editor).

Like the yearbook, the schoolpaper, under the masthead of "The Spectator," is published entirely by the after class time and effort of the students. When the editorial staff has processed all the material gleaned by reporters, five issues a year are realized. The paper has repeatedly distinguished itself by receiving "first honor" awards from The Catholic School Press Association and The Pennsylvania School Press Association.

ASSISTANT EDITOR Cynthia Keen (seated) evidently makes a pleasing assignment to artist Constance Saum and photographer Teddy Beltz.

SISTER AGNES ANGELA, S.S.J., and Sister Christine, S.C., do their part in preparing underclassmen for The Spectator. Observing intently are Loretta Freed, Joseph O'Brien, Mary Ann Doll, Thomas Myers, Richard Rutter, George Winters, Catherine Mullen.

SENIOR LIBRARIANS, many with four years service, take daily turns in all the varied assignments. Mary Jo Helfrick, a junior (seated), is initiated into magazine routine by Mary Ellen Little, Marion Buckingham, Martha Dunnick, Margaret Mary O'Rourke, Catherine Wagaman, and Arlene Noll.

AT THE CHARGING DESK are Clare Mann, Patricia Bakos, Linda Markle, Rosemary Henisse, Patricia Akers, Jane Wogan, Nancy Shortino, and Florence Freed.

Library Aides

UNDERCLASSMEN get the in's and out's of the library aide story from Sister Joseph Leona.

Beyond the Call

THIS IS a familiar sight. Father Bierster checking with Miss Weaver, Sister Florinda, prefect of studies, helping matters along, while Sister Marie Leona, prefect of discipline gets necessary outside information.

DAILY LUNCH for approximately 500, set-outs for special occasions, games, etc., are all taken care of by Miss Mary Stanford (center), aided by Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Bovey.

HELPING SISTER FLORINDA to display interesting career literature are Constance Saum, Judith Orendorff, and Ann Marie Sullivan, and Donald Staub.

BEHIND THE SCENES Sister Patricia Mary prepares for Friday Mass assisted by Arlene Noll, Mary Shive, Marie Haupt.

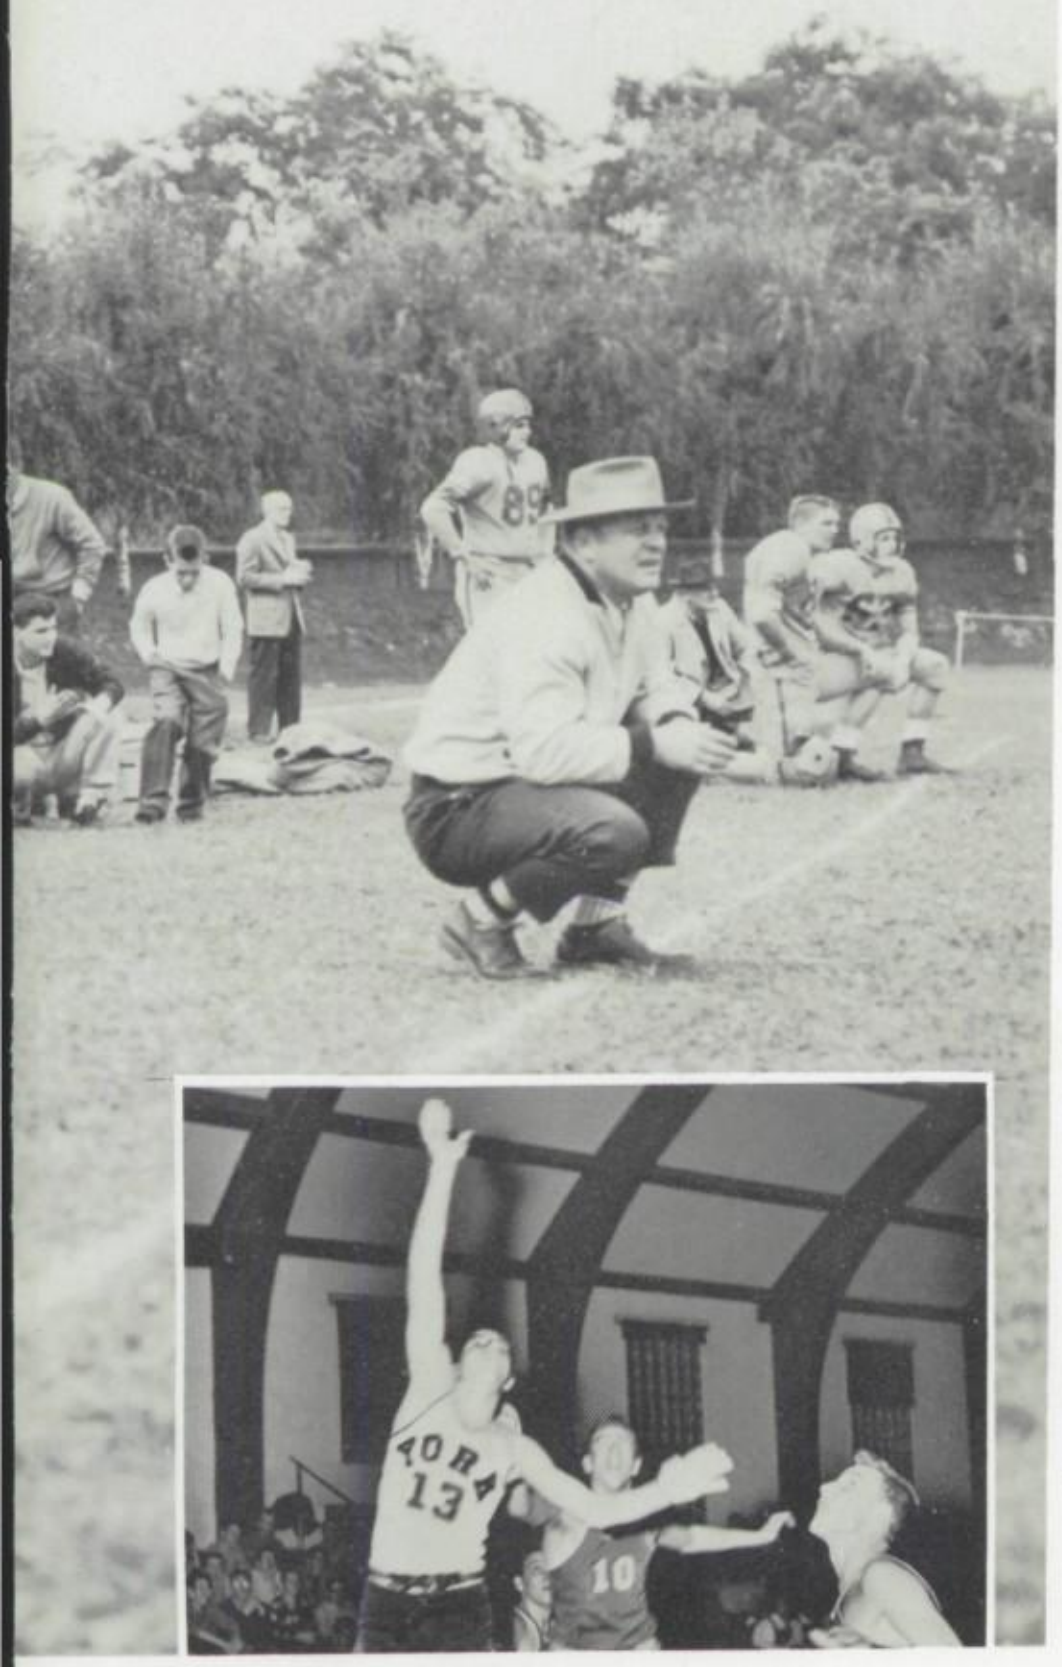
FATHER BIERSTER, Principal, is shown delivering one of his frequent sermons to the student body. On special occasions, the subject of Father's sermon is chosen to fit the occasion.

DURING ONE of his much-welcomed visits at Y. C., Bishop George L. Leech discusses with Father Bierster and Father George W. Rost, his secretary, the annual Advent Wreath which is displayed during the four weeks of Advent.



PREPARE the boy and girl of today for the full, strenuous life of tomorrow. The program at York Catholic arouses competitive spirit, which, in turn, demands efficiency, and at the same time, calls forth fairness, self-control, and similar moral traits. Participants must make quick and accurate decisions; they must be willing to make sacrifice; they must "keep on keeping on."

Principal, coaches, athletic committee and fans of Y.C.H.S. all recognize the value of this PREPARATION and seek in every way to perfect the activity.

Football and basketball are the main attractions but volley ball, dodgeball, soccer, and golf get a share in the training program here.

The Fighting Irish in Peace

Grid Highlights of '57

York Catholic squad '57 opened the season facing the always strong Blue Raiders of Middletown. Scoring for the Raiders began late in the first quarter when they took a Green and Gold punt and drove 83 yards for a T.D. Near the close of the second period, Middletown turned a fumble into their second touchdown, and then cashed in with three second half six pointers. Since three touchdowns of the 32-0 score were set up by fumbles, breaks entered largely into final outcome.

Victory came to York Catholic on meeting Lancaster Catholic High. Borsa seemed to be the outstanding figure in the first three quarters as the Irish took a 12-0 lead. Lancaster recovered a Green and Gold fumble early in the fourth stanza and went on to score its only touchdown of the game. A few minutes later halfback Jim Conner picked up a Lancaster fumble and took off on a 23 yard run scoring a third T.D. which wrapped the game up into an 18 to 6 victory.

Ever powerful Bishop McDevitt (formerly Harrisburg Catholic) proved too much for the Green and Gold eleven. The Irish were late in getting started and it was not until the final period that they finally tallied a six-pointer on a 39 yard sprint by quarterback Pat Clark, thus concluding an 82 yard drive. McDevitt's slim 7 to 0 halftime edge was increased to 27 points by a strong second half. Final, 33 to 6.

After a scoreless first period against Susquehannock, the Fighting Irish opened the second quarter with a tally, on an 88 yard run by Paul Borsa aided by brilliant blocking. Our fumbles proved costly in that Susquehannock recovered four out of seven, one of which lead to a touchdown. It was not until the fourth period that the Warriors rallied for a pair of scores, but this proved to be enough to clinch the 13 to 6 victory for them.

MR. JOHN SINKOVITZ, able coach, sincere friend, competent adviser.

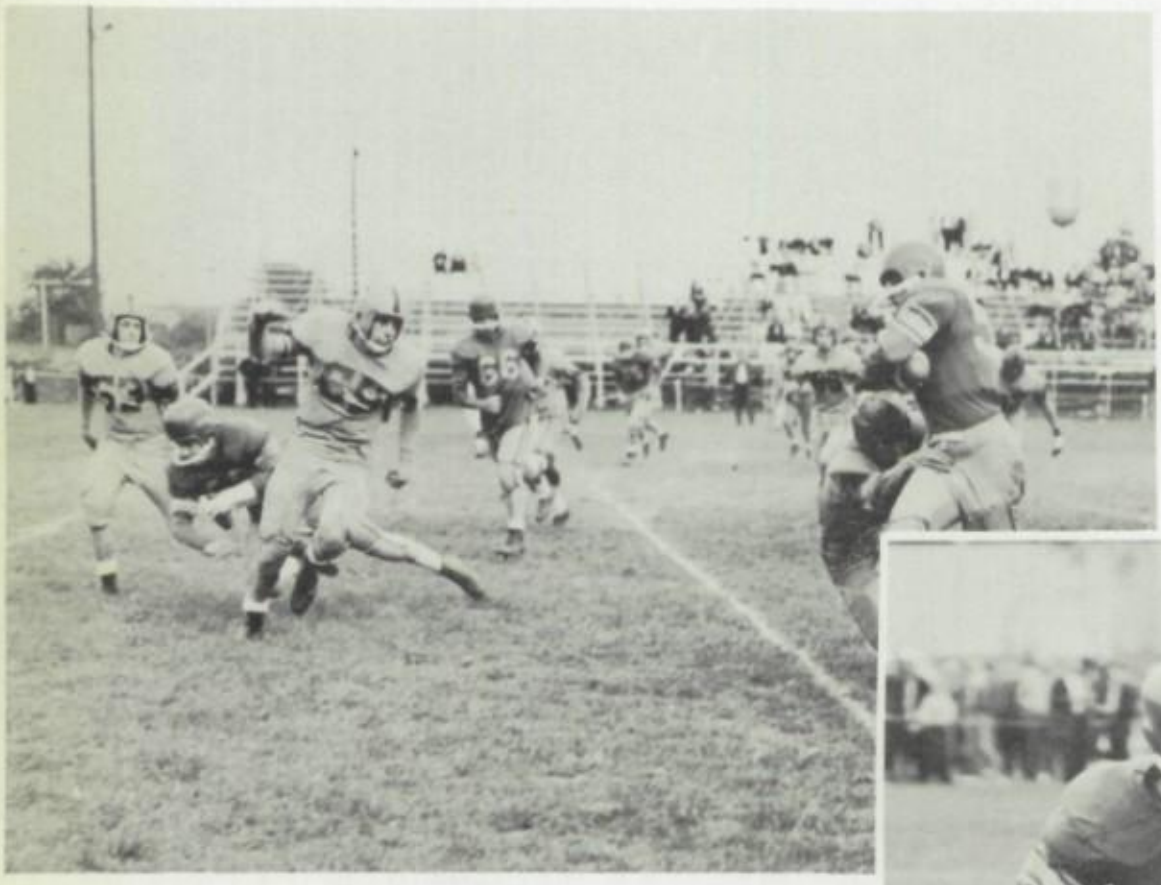
JUST AS IMPORTANT as the physical is this, the spiritual PREPARATION when the team calls on our Lady of Victory to assist them throughout the game.



DEFENSIVE STABILITY is the essential factor, shown here by Mike Schneider (making tackle). Team pursuit, also very important, is demonstrated by Borsa 69, Conners 63, and Arigo 85, against Harrisburg.

PAUL BORSA, flashy workhorse of the Fighting Irish and "All Catholic" backfield ace, shows his own technique of eluding a Harrisburg defender.

Highlights Resumed

In the annual battle with the Squires of Delone, York came out on the bottom of a 41-14 score. A great passing game proved to be our only effective weapon, with Boll on the end of 5 of the 9 passes completed. With Borsa as leading ground gainer, York scored two touchdowns in the last quarter.

Through two weeks of hard practice, York prepared to meet a tough Reading team. The practice was not in vain for on the opening kick-off, York marched 65 yards for the first score. The second quarter found York on the end of another touchdown through the fine running of Al Crone. Reading was not to be denied and scored on a 65 yard pass. During the second half, York played rough and tough football to win, 26-13.

The last game of the season proved to be a thrilling one for the Irish Seniors as well as the rest of the team. The "mudlarks" of York Catholic played a great game even though handicapped by the mud covered field. On the opening kick-off, Pat Clark scampered 60 yards before being brought down on the 10 yard line. From there on it was York's game with Dallastown never threatening. Final, 12-0.

HERE THE QUARTER-BACK of the Fighting Irish, Pat Clark, displays the fine running which helped vanquish the mud-covered Dallastonians.

LEAGUE GAMES—First Half

With a completely new starting five Coach Sinkovitz's squad initiated the basketball campaign by running into stiff opposition, due mainly to Y. C.'s lack of height. Shamokin, first competitor, was also Y. C.'s first loss, though a close—52-56. At Lebanon, Y. C. came out on the short end of a hard fought but evenly matched game—51-59. Harrisburg's big men found little trouble in subduing York's small cages—48-83. The Green and Gold's first taste of victory came in the encounter with Delone—59-45. The Irish closed out the first half play by overcoming Lancaster in down-to-wire finish—61-59.

Second Half

Success attended the Green and Gold on the home court when they trounced the Speedboys of Shamokin—63-37. However, even a half-time advantage against Lebanon wasn't enough to keep the Irish in front, as a faulty second-half proved costly and York wound up on the short end of a 60-70 score. "Champion-minded" McDevitt High wasted no time in adding the Fighting Irish to their league victories by a wide margin 47-74. The little but mighty cagers of York then went to Lancaster to repeat a first-half victory over the Crusaders—64-58. At Delone the Irish closed out the basketball campaign for the season by dropping a nip and tuck affair—41-45.

†Holiday Tourney at Spring Grove.

BOBBY DOHM (54) and Steve Freeland (50) stand by for rebound during game with McDevitt Catholic. As is shown here lack of height was York's main deficit.

MICKEY ANDREWS (44) drives in for a layup and a twin pointer against the "Wildcats" from Dallastown.

PROMISING FRESHMAN, Steve Freeland, fires an accurate jump shot from close range against St. Ed's as the Irish avenged an earlier defeat by the "Speedboys."

PAUL BORSA (24) lines up a valuable two points against the Rockets of Spring Grove in our first Holiday Tournament, as Bob Dohm (54) looks for the rebound that never came.

Irish Cagers

PAT CLARK (15), high point man for the Fighting Irish, shoots his famous jump shot to hit for two points amid a host of Middletown defenders.

PAT CLARK adds two more points despite the overwhelming height of McDevitt Catholic.

AN UNUSUAL CAMERA shot finds Bobby Dohm (54) gliding casually through the air in a successful attempt to score against Lancaster as alert Steve Freeland (50) tends to give his assistance. Lancaster was the second victim for the Green and Gold during first half play.

HERB STONE'S (22) jump shot from the key is good, as Jim Lytle (24) and Johnny Watson (20) are ready to lend their assistance.

JOHNNY WATSON (20) needs no help as he drives through the Lebanon defense to score another two points.

WITH ALL the animation of a league game, senior and junior girls in gym class strive for scores.

Girlish Gayety

WHAT ARE these lassies doing? The ball rolls peacefully above them.

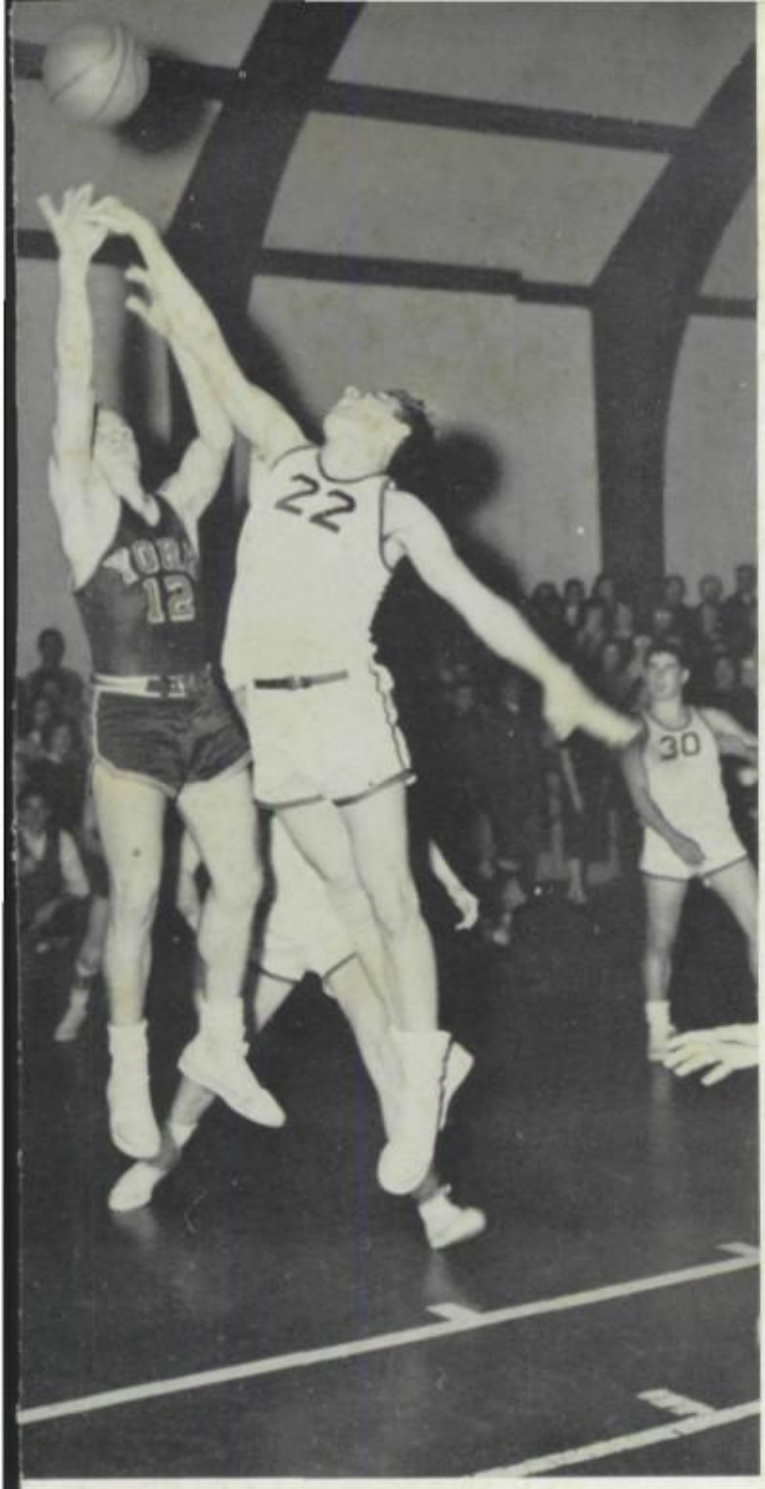
Adroit Amateurs



A HIGH FLYING West York defender fails in his attempt to block a shot by Paul Borsa (12) whose shot is already on the way.

LITTLE PATRICK CLARK (40) finds only long arms in front of him as his attempted shot is foiled by a group of Lancaster defenders.

BOBBY DOHM (54) finds himself on the scoring end of a fast break, a play which the Fighting Irish used successfully throughout the year.

Memories Are

BEFORE THE PROM, the committee meets at the Convent of the Daughters of Mercy. In ascending order: Vincent Krepps, Harriet Flinchbaugh, Larry Watson, Nancy Miller, Michael Gangloff, Darlene Gaubert, Edward Ruth, Dena Smith, James Dohm, Josephine Alfano, Michael Schneider, Sheila Kraft and Joseph Foin.

MISS MARY WEAVER, well-loved secretary acting as chaperon, adds to the gaity as she greets Clare Mann and James Lau.

Made of This

JUST ARRIVING are the happy couple, Herb Martin and Jane Wogan.

GLOWING WITH JOY, stand the king and queen of the evening—Tina Deller and Albert Boll.

DANCING TO THE STRAINS of "Are You Sincere?", dedicated to the boy, happy promenaders reflect the glow of the evening.

IN THE COLORFUL COSTUMES of Scotland, the Choir reaches the Finale with the fair scene from the musical production "Brigadoon."

Spring Returns With Jubilation

FILLING THE HALL with the music of Handel's "Song of Jupiter," the orchestra, directed by Mr. Roman Shuman, displays the product of talent plus hard work.

AT THE PEAK of the Musicale, the curtains open revealing a tableau of Lourdes, holding the audience spellbound.

Approximately 300 students participated in the Spring Music Festival. Judging from the program, the theme might have been, "Wide, Wide, World" since selections included "Copenhagen," "Lourdes Hymn," "Dutch Tunes," "Your Land and My Land," "Bridge of Kiev," "Wild Rose," and "Brigadoon," besides many others.

Sister Marita Cecilia is department head; Mr. Roman Shuman, Orchestra; Mr. Ralph Woolley, Glee Club; Mr. John Hutton, Band.

MARY SHIVE, as Our Lady, and Cecilia Collins, as Bernadette.

MR. RALPH WOOLLEY, third from left, congratulates soloists Margaret O'Rourke and Francis Faust, and the members of the male quartet. Michael Kane, Harold Adams, Albert Ball and Michael Andrews.

On the Lighter Side

WINTER FROLIC DANCE for the benefit of the Rosa Mystica revived the Christmas spirit in giving and receiving.

PLAYLAND SKATING PARTY sponsored by juniors is apparently taken over by seniors Robert Stewart, Linda Markle, Jane Wogan, Patricia Mumma in an endeavor to bring Father Bierster up to date on new skating steps.

MEMBERS OF the Sedes Sapientiae Chapter of the Junior Classical League attend a "Roman Banquet." Herbert Martin proposes a toast, Harold Adams passes fruit; continuing clockwise from Harold are Anna Mead, Bonita Crone, Patricia Akers, Rosalie Dunn, Jane Wogan, Cynthia Keen, Judith Crittenden, Mary Guyer, Shirley Roth, Jane Lansdorf, Margaret Tassia, Anne Sullivan, Beverly Peters, Mary Ellen Little, and Genevieve Corbin.

To Whom it may concern:
(meaning Annie)

I- Athought the illustrations in H. H. were sharp, sharp, sharp!
II I like Frank Sinatra!
III I hope you sit behind me in Religion next year too or I'll die of boredom! Remember R. T.'s neat clothes.

Love, Lewie

Annie,
a friend from great Pat's. never to get our wonderful spot at N. C. Annie
Best Thanksgiving ever from H. Pat's.
